It's Your Time to Vote!

City Council Approve Measures for November Ballot

The upcoming November election is more important than ever. It is not only important to vote for our next President, but it is also important to be informed about the measures that will have an impact locally. This week, the San Diego City Council approved the following measures to be placed on the ballot, in addition to the 17 statewide measures that will also appear in November.

A new Charter Article on Elected Officials to create a new charter section addressing cause for removal from all elected offices, process for succession to elected office, and interim authority for all elected offices.

Amendment to Charter Section 40: City Attorney to reduce the probationary period for Deputy Attorneys from two years to one year.

Amendments to the Citizen's Review Board on Police Practices to place the board under the control of both the Mayor and Council, rename the board as the "Community Review Board on Police Practices," and require the board to review all cases involving in-custody deaths and officer-related shootings.

Amendment to Charter Section 55: San Diego High School to permanently keep San Diego High School at its current location.

Revisions to the City's Purchasing and Contracting Charter Sections to streamline the process allowing for flexibility in the city's procurement practices.

Cannabis Business Tax to tax the sale of recreational cannabis that would go into effect if recreational marijuana is legalized statewide in November.

Amendment to Charter Section 55.2: Mission Bay Park and Regional Park Improvement Fund to preserve and prioritize capital investment in Mission Bay Park and other Regional Parks.

Proposed Charter Amendment to require Run-Off Election for Mayor, City Attorney, and City Councilmembers that denies a candidate to win outright in the June primary election.

Proposed Charter Amendment Relating to the Timing of Ballot Measure Elections that requires citizens' initiatives and referendum measures to be voted on at the November general election to align with state law.
